ANNOUNCEMENT

ECBM PILOT PROJECT IN CHINA RECEIVES CANADIAN GOVERNMENT SUPPORT

The Board is pleased to announce that the ECBM Pilot Project in China receives Canadian government support.

The board (“Board”) of directors of (“Directors”) of Enviro Energy International Holdings Limited (“Company”) is pleased to announce that in support of the goal to reduce CO<sub>2</sub> emissions in the People’s Republic of China (“China”), Mr. Stephen Harper (“Prime Minister”), the Prime Minister of Canada, announced on 4 December 2009 during his official visit to China that the Canadian government will provide grant for a number of innovative and clean technology projects including, among others, the Deep Un-mineable Coal CO<sub>2</sub> Sequestration and Enhanced Coalbed Methane Project (“ECBM Pilot Project”) in China. The Canadian government grant of C$500,000 for the ECBM Pilot Project will be provided through Petromin Resources Ltd. (“Petromin”), the Company’s cooperative venture partner. The ECBM Pilot Project involves the development of the technology for CO<sub>2</sub> injection and long term storage in deep coal beds in China, as well as the piloting of enhanced coalbed methane production using CO<sub>2</sub>.

The Prime Minister emphasized the importance of Canada and China working together on energy and clean technology and working with other G-20 partners to combat climate change globally. The support is provided under Canada’s role in the Asia Pacific Partnership on Clean Development and Climate (“APP”). This partnership consists of seven countries, namely Australia, Canada, China, India, Japan, South Korea and the United States, which have agreed to work together with industry partners to advance innovative and clean technologies within their regions.

The ECBM Pilot Project is an international collaboration that includes the Company from Hong Kong, Petromin from Canada and China United Coalbed Methane Corp. Ltd. (“CUCBM”) from China. The collaborative model reflects the international cooperative principles of the APP. The ECBM Pilot Project is operated by CUCBM. The Company and Petromin contribute funding and specialized services including Canadian expertise as well as training to the Chinese party. As announced by the Company on 24 November 2009, the pilot operations, which are currently underway, include re-working the project injection well and operating the well for a period of time. The first CO<sub>2</sub> injection is planned for January 2010 after which monitoring and analysis will follow.
